Re: Barbieri v. Tailored Brands, Inc.
Case 1:22-cv-00491-GLS-DJS
Our File No. 022821.092525

Dear Judge Sharpe:

We represent Defendant Tailored Brands, Inc. ("Defendant") in connection with the above-referenced action. We write with the consent of counsel for Plaintiff John Barbieri ("Plaintiff") to respectfully request that the Court extend Defendant's time to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the Complaint from July 6, 2022 to July 27, 2022.

This is the second request for an extension of time to respond to the Complaint and is made for purposes of determining whether the parties can avoid and narrow potential motion-to-dismiss arguments without the court's involvement. The parties agree that the extension does not prejudice any arguments either party may make at the conclusion of these discussions, including arguments related to the enforcement of arbitration agreements. If granted, this extension will not affect any other date scheduled in this action. As noted above, Plaintiff's counsel consents to this request.

We thank the Court in advance for its consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

s/John S. Mairo
